Safe Schools Boost Learning

By Carol Hansen, Ed.D., Superintendent
Ocean View School District

Safety is at the forefront of all our minds. Schools in particular have focused on student and staff safety as a basic part of their annual planning for many decades, both in terms of proper training and the physical state of school facilities. When many of us were young, we learned about earthquake and fire drills. Maybe some of us remember “duck and cover” drills. Today, for better or worse, many of us working in public settings are learning about safety scenarios and trainings in additional types of emergencies.

In the Ocean View School District, safety is a top priority. In fact, it is a critical focus area in our long-term Strategic Plan, The Ocean View School District (OVSD) Edge. For many years, we have known students are only able to learn when they are in a safe and comfortable learning environment, so we have built safety into our planning to help ensure student success. How are we doing this? There are several ways we address safety proactively, as noted above. Not only do we have to train our employees and students on the most current safety procedures, but we also have to keep our schools and operations facilities in tip-top shape. We partner with our local law enforcement and fire agencies to share information and learn the latest and most effective safety procedures. For example, we are working closely with city officials to create safe school routes so children and families feel secure walking to and from school.

Our maintenance, operations, and facilities teams were busy around the district this summer. Not only were they preparing for the reopening of Lake View Elementary School as a Science, Technology, Engineering, Arts, and Mathematics (STEAM)-focused school, but teams also worked with contractors to complete Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) required pathways on many of our campuses.

This year, all OVSD employees are required to learn the safety technique called Run, Fight, Hide. A few of our schools have already teamed up with local law enforcement to complete this training, but now all of our employees, at our schools and in our district and operations buildings, will be trained to ensure that we are fully prepared if an emergency does arise. We appreciate the steadfast dedication of our local police and fire departments.

I am pleased to report that OVSD has launched its Facilities Master Plan Web site (www.

At the newly reopened Lake View Elementary School in Huntington Beach, reconstruction not only meant reconfigured classrooms for the school's STEAM-focused curriculum, but it meant a number of safety projects, including brand new six-foot fencing to enclose the school's Kindergarten play area from nearby traffic, as well as serving a privacy function. Before the grand reopening on September 7, a few returning Lake View students were able to enjoy and try out the playground.

ovsd-fmp.org) as we continue to plan for the many modernization projects that are needed in all of our schools. Thank you to the many parents and community members who took time out of their evenings to help us assess our school facility needs and create our priority lists. Items that were mentioned across many of our schools included safety projects, such as repairing or adding fences, lighting, electrical systems, heating and air conditioning, play equipment, and much more. Additionally, on July 5 our Board of Trustees voted to place a $169-million general obligation bond on the November 8 ballot. I hope you will take a moment to tour OVSD's Facilities Master Plan Web site and review our individual school project pages.

As we begin the new school year and I enter my second year as the superintendent of the Ocean View School District, I give you my unwavering commitment to provide the leadership and support our students, schools, and employees need as we propel OVSD toward continued and even greater success. Safety is a critical part of it!

Healthy Eating On the Go

Barry Steinmetz, M.D.

Associate Medical Director, Pediatric Gastroenterology, Hepatology & Nutrition Center, Miller Children's & Women's Hospital Long Beach

Getting your child to eat healthy can be a challenge, especially with busy schedules. Avoiding junk food can sometimes seem impossible. However, a well-balanced diet along with plenty of rest and exercise will help your child's immune system continue to function properly – reducing the risk of illness.

A healthy diet also is necessary for brain growth and development. In the first five years of life, 90 percent of a child's brain develops.

Here are some easy meal and snack ideas that are both delicious and healthy:

- Peel a banana and dip it in low-fat yogurt. Roll in crushed cereal and freeze.
- Spread celery sticks with peanut butter or low-fat cream cheese. Top with raisins. Enjoy your "ants on a log."
- Mix together ready-to-eat cereal, dried fruit and nuts in a sandwich bag for an on-the-go snack.
- Smear a scoop of frozen yogurt on two graham crackers and add sliced banana to make a sandwich.
- Top low-fat vanilla yogurt with crunchy granola and sprinkle with blueberries.
- Make snack kabobs; put cubes of low-fat cheese and grapes on pretzel sticks.
- Toast a whole grain waffle and top with low-fat yogurt and sliced peaches.
- Spread peanut butter on apple slices.
- Blend low-fat milk, frozen strawberries and a banana for 30 seconds for a delicious smoothie.
- Mix together peanut butter and cornflakes in a bowl. Shape into balls and roll in crushed graham crackers.

Maintaining a well-balanced diet early in development will help promote a life-long habit of healthy eating for your child.

Sports Nutrition for Children

Kenneth Kim, M.D.
Medical Director,
Pediatric ICU

A healthy diet, with the right combination and amount of food, is essential for an athletic child's higher level of activity and energy needs. Here are some tips to help children perform at the best levels:

- It takes time to digest food - stop eating two hours before game-day activity starts to save energy levels for the event.
- High-fiber foods are nutritious but may cause stomach upset – don't eat them before activity.
- High-fat foods take longer to digest – avoid them up to three hours before a game or event.
- Eat plenty of carbohydrates (in fruits, vegetables and whole grains) along with a moderate amount of proteins (in meat, eggs and dairy).
- Fluids are critical in preventing dehydration during activity. Experts recommend drinking water or other fluids in 15 – 20 minute intervals during and after the activity to replenish fluid levels lost through sweat.
- The body depletes its readily available energy supply after one hour of exercise. Sports drinks help replenish electrolytes and are a good option for kids who are active for 60 – 90 minutes.
- Athletic kids need calcium and iron in their diets to build strong bones and sustain energy. Dairy products, green leafy vegetables, meat, dried beans and fortified cereals are good sources.

Many children participate in sports that place a heavy emphasize on appearance and weight. This can cause pressure and potentially an unhealthy obsession with weight gain or reduction that could last a lifetime. Dieting is usually not a good idea for athletic kids because they need the additional calories to sustain high energy levels for activity. Dieting also can prevent a growing child from reaching his or her intended height. Parents should discuss diet options with a doctor or nutritionist if a coach recommends that a child lose weight.

Orthodontics Matters

Using Invisalign and Braces?

Orthodontist

I see many new patients (especially adults) who want straight teeth, but have been told in the past that they aren't a candidate for Invisalign. So they are sometimes confused when I evaluate their smile and bite and determine that we can in fact use Invisalign! How can that be? To explain this, it is helpful to remember how Invisalign aligners are custom made for each patient. In my office, we take a 3-D scan of the teeth (yes, no goopy impressions!), which is then sent electronically to an Invisalign technician. I instruct the technician how the teeth should be moved. Once I am satisfied with the tooth movements, I have the Invisalign aligners manufactured. This is a very important "behind the scenes" aspect of Invisalign treatment that should be understood – "someone" tells the technician how to move the teeth! So prescribed tooth movements will vary depending upon where the patient goes and who that 'someone' is. In my office, that someone is me – an orthodontic specialist.

Another important aspect to realize is the fact that Invisalign aligner technology has come a long way. These advances allow me to currently treat cases that I wouldn't have in the past. Finally, there are cases where a few teeth really need some braces (either the movement is too complex or not enough force can be generated with the Invisalign aligner alone). In these cases, I recommend using a few braces (3-4) at some point during their Invisalign treatment. In these cases, the patient uses Invisalign aligners during their entire treatment, but I add a few braces, say on a few back teeth, in order to get the correct tooth movements.

Dr. Andrew Harner is an orthodontic specialist and practices in Huntington Beach. He is a member of the American Association of Orthodontists. He serves on the Board of Directors for both the California Association of Orthodontists and the Pacific Coast Society of Orthodontists. In addition, he is the Case Report Editor for the PCSO Bulletin. (714) 842-9933.

Putting Patients & Safety First

Our physicians, nurses and ancillary staff work hard to prevent infections, double-check medications and keep patients free from harm. Thanks to them, we've earned the top distinction for patient safety with an "A" grade from the Hospital Safety Score for being one of the safest hospitals in America.

The Hospital Safety Score is an elite designation from The Leapfrog Group, an independent nonprofit that sets the highest national standards for patient safety, quality, and transparency in health care.

BOARD OF TRUSTEES

Jeanne Galindo
President

Jeanne Galindo was elected to the Fountain Valley School District Board of Trustees in November, 2012. As an active parent volunteer for many years, Mrs. Galindo was thrilled to take a more formal role in the District and she absolutely loves being a key member of FVSD’s Governance Team. After teaching middle school English and reading for twelve years and seeing the value of using technology in education, she left the classroom and worked as a Technology Education and Sales Marketing Manager until her retirement.

In addition, Mrs. Galindo is proud to have served as Trustee while some key accomplishments have occurred, including the selection of our new Superintendent in January, 2015. As many people know, the hiring of a Superintendent is one of the most important decisions any Trustee can make. This Board chose wisely, as student achievement, collaboration, shared decision making, district culture and professional development have all continued to improve. Furthermore, reinstating our music program with credentialed teachers has raised the level of achievement in both our band and orchestra, while bringing joy to our students. Moreover, the District’s investment of $35 million in a ladder portfolio with the Orange County Treasurer is bringing additional revenues to our District. And lastly, placing a bond measure on the November ballot allows our stakeholders to decide whether to implement our Facilities Master Plan. She feels privileged and honored to serve this exemplary school district.

As a trustee, she has most enjoyed working with the Superintendent Parent Council, as this work keeps her apprised of all the activities at our sites. Similarly, touring our schools and preparing Board agendas while Board President keeps her current on District issues.

Mrs. Galindo and her husband have lived in the Plavan-Masuda area for 40 years. She holds a Bachelor’s of Arts in English and German from San Diego State where she also received her teaching credential. And she has a Master’s Degree in Public Administration from the University of Southern California.

Jay Adams
Principal

My name is Jay Adams and I am so excited to be at the helm as the Masuda Monarchs' Principal! I grew up in Colorado, graduating with my BA from the University of Northern Colorado. I moved to California at 22, began teaching, and then earned my MA from Azusa Pacific University. My favorite part of being a principal is getting to watch students grow and change from "in-betweeners" into confident young men and women. They experience so much transformation from fifth through eighth grades! I especially enjoy working with At-Risk students, developing strategies and plans to help them learn and to keep them moving on target. One of my main goals is getting each Monarch to internalize our school motto: "Take a Second. Make a Difference." Values and making change to better our world are important tenets which I hope to impart to each and every Masuda student!

At home, my name is "mom" to four children—Julian (eighteen), Isaiah (sixteen), Kaia (thirteen), and Asia (eleven). We have a busy household including ten pets: a hedgehog, two rabbits, four cats, and three birds. My favorite activity in my free time (when there is some) is SCUBA diving. I especially like to travel to Catalina Island, where I have dived with the Garibaldi, bat rays, lobsters, sea lions, and even an angel shark! I am also a Tim Burton fanatic! I love Jack Skellington, Beetlejuice, Edward Scissorhands...you name it!

Next time you're in the area, stop by and say hello to me at Masuda. I look forward to meeting you and to working with you to ensure your student's success!

Christopher Mullin has lived in and around Fountain Valley for over 35 years. He attended Moiola Elementary and graduated from FVHS. After high school, Mr. Mullin decided to take the road less traveled and worked as a forest firefighter with CDF and with US Forestry as a backcountry ranger. In time, Mr. Mullin enrolled at Montana State University. Upon completion of his bachelor's in education, he immediately found a job as a fifth-grade teacher at a K–12 school in the small rural town of Three Forks, MT. working there for three years. Eventually he made his way back to the Fountain Valley School District teaching science and PE at Masuda Middle School, where he taught for five years. As an administrator, Mr. Mullin worked at both Fulton and Masuda Middle Schools. For the past three years, he has been the principal at Newland Elementary! Newland is a school with a proven record of high academic achievement and one that promotes a learning community characterized by child-centered differentiated instruction. Our staff and students have a history of making educational excellence a habit. This is evident in the fact that Newland was recently awarded the prestigious California Gold Ribbon along with the National Blue Ribbon, and California Distinguished School awards the previous year. The faculty at Newland is dedicated to creating a learning environment where students may achieve to their highest ability. When not at school, Mr. Mullin can be found enjoying time with his wife and children. Free time is often spent fishing from his kayak, going to Angels games, or cooking for family and friends.

Principal

Mr. Erik Miller is beginning his sixth year as the principal of the Isojiro Oka Elementary School Wolfpack. He feels blessed to be part of a fantastic Fountain Valley School District team and specifically lead an Oka staff that is all about putting students “First!” Oka is consistently ranked in the top tier of schools in Orange County and throughout California for their academic excellence and ensuring students get a strong educational foundation.

Mr. Miller is proud of the support by parents and FVSD to increase the amount of technology in the hands of Wolfpack students, resulting in greater levels of student achievement. What used to be a single computer lab school has transformed into a 2:1 student to device ratio over the past couple of years! His absolute favorite part about being a principal is supporting and leading students and staff to achieve levels of success they did not think were once possible. Oka students thrive within environments that are positive, engaging, and focused on student learning, and as a school culture, this is the top priority. As principal, he works from the principle that students will do their best when they are connected to their classroom through academic challenge balanced with a setting that promotes positive character development. Whether in a classroom working with students or playing games with them on the playground, Mr. Miller is all about helping students grow as scholars and as people.

Prior to arriving at Oka, Mr. Miller was an assistant principal at the elementary and middle school levels. In addition, he taught both elementary and middle school in Irvine. His favorite subjects are math and social studies. Mr. Miller and his wife Kelley, also a teacher, are parents of three awesome children. Their daughter is in High School, and sons are in Middle and Elementary School. When away from the Oka campus, Mr. Miller’s favorite things to do include playing golf, cheering on the Angels, Ducks, and Chargers, volunteering at church and being a Dad!

Julie Ballesteros has been an educator for the past 20 years. She graduated with a Bachelor of Arts in education from Arizona State University. She began her career in education as a reading specialist in Phoenix, Arizona. Mrs. Ballesteros continued her education and received a Master of Arts in Educational Administration at Azusa Pacific University. This led her to becoming a Glendora middle school assistant principal for two years. She actually worked at the same school she attended as a child! This opportunity ignited her passion for educational administration.

Mrs. Ballesteros is now beginning her ninth year as the proud principal of Plavan Elementary School in the Fountain Valley School District. “I am blessed to work with an incredible staff and community that are truly committed to educating the minds and the hearts of all our students,” she said. “My experiences in Fountain Valley have helped me grow as an educator, and I look forward to learning together again this year.”

Kathy Davis
Principal

I welcome everyone to the 2016–2017 school year. I am very excited as I enter my fourth year as the principal of Tamura. This last school year was full of so many successes, and I am very much looking forward to watching our Tigers set new goals and endeavors for 2016-17.

We have such an amazing family of students, teachers and staff members, as well as incredibly supportive parents, and I feel very fortunate to be working with this inspiring and talented community.

I started my career teaching in the Westminster School District, and began my administrative career working two years as an assistant principal before I joined the Fountain Valley School District. This is my eleventh year as a principal in the Fountain Valley School District. I served my first seven years as principal of Newland, and am absolutely thrilled to be entering my fourth year as a part of an incredible staff and community support network here at Tamura.

This school year our teachers will continue with their work with Cognitively Guided Instruction (CGI), and will work collaboratively within and across grade levels to provide students with the best learning opportunities possible. We will also continue our efforts to embed PBIS strategies into the school culture to help build our student s’ awareness of their roles at Tamura, and provide them with an opportunity to make good choices both academically and socially.

We will continue to Be Safe, Be Responsible, Be Respectful and Be Our Best

Darren Platt
Principal

Darren Platt is in his second year as principal at Dwyer Middle School. He began his tenure in Huntington Beach two years ago as our assistant principal.

Mr. Platt graduated from California State University, Dominguez Hills with a Master of Arts in educational leadership and has a Bachelor of Arts in social science with a minor in political science from California State University, Long Beach. He has been in education for 23 years, serving in the Los Alamitos and Bellflower Unified school districts before coming to HBCSD.

He was a teacher for 14 years, teaching history, language arts, leadership, PE and intervention programs. He then became a school administrator in the Los Alamitos Unified School District at Oak and McAuliffe middle schools. Leaving the classroom was a difficult decision for him. He had many opportunities to move into administration but always turned them down because of the impact that a teacher has on young people's lives. That changed when a mentor of his said "a good teacher can impact hundreds of students, but a good administrator can impact thousands."

"The power of education is created in the connection between a student and an educator, whether it be a teacher, counselor, a member of the office staff or the principal," Mr. Platt said.

Mr. Platt strongly believes in the power of extracurricular activities in helping develop well-rounded students, as shown in his experience as ASB director, coach of multiple sports and adviser to numerous clubs. He's excited about continuing Dwyer's rich history and its stellar activities, sports programs and amazing classroom learning opportunities.

Mr. Platt has been blessed with an amazing family that includes his wife and four children. In his free time, he enjoys coaching, playing and goofing around with them. He's also known to be a bit of a Disney fanatic!

SUPERINTENDENT

Dr. Carol Hansen

For those of you just joining us in the Ocean View School District this year, I would like to share a little bit about myself. My career has been focused on public education for more than 31 years, but my enthusiasm for educating students continues to grow, particularly since coming to OVSD. In 2015, I was named the new superintendent of OVSD after serving in the ABC Unified School District (ABCUSD) as the Assistant Superintendent for Human Resources. In this capacity, I provided oversight for all personnel functions and served as the chief negotiator for the school district. While in ABCUSD, I was fortunate to be actively involved in fostering a nationally recognized labor-management partnership. I am proud to say that in my first year at OVSD, our new administrative team and union leadership negotiated positive labor contracts for our teachers and classified staff, formed a Partnership of Administration and Leadership, or PAL, and by the end of the school year, created Guiding Principles in support of this positive PAL culture for future years.

As 2016-2017 gets off to a great start, I am continuing my unwavering commitment to student achievement, innovative programs, open and transparent communication, engagement of all stakeholders, and consistency in our leadership. During the fall, we will share with our parents and community the facts regarding our Facilities Master Plan, spotlighting the need to address our aging buildings and the potential for future improvements. There is much work to be done, but let us also celebrate this fall. We are thrilled to reopen Lake View Elementary School as a STEAM-focused school, provide a new middle school afterschool program at Mesa View, put into action our Local Control and Accountability Plan (LCAP), and launch a brand new look for our District and school websites. Stay tuned OVSD!

BOARD OF TRUSTEES

Gina Clayton-Tarvin
President

As the president of the Ocean View School District Board of Trustees for the second year in a row, it is my honor and pleasure to help kick off the 2016-2017 school year with a team of incredible administrators, managers, teachers, classified staff, and of course, our fabulous students and families. I am proud to say we are continuing to build on the positive momentum created last year, all in the name of providing every student in OVSD with the best, most innovative education possible.

For the past 20 years I have been an educator in the ABC Unified School District, serving for the past 10 years as a sixth-grade Gifted and Talented Education (GATE) teacher. Prior to that, I was a seventh- and eighth-grade math and science middle school teacher and a coordinator for a federally funded magnet school. I have also worked as a Special Education homeschool teacher. These experiences gained through teaching in the classroom and serving as a member of the PTA have helped me to understand and identify the needs of students, parents and educators in OVSD. Throughout my career, I have served as a leader in the ABC Federation of Teachers and I am currently an elected member of the Delegate Assembly in the California School Board Association. I am the proud mother of two boys and, for the first time, my husband and I are venturing into the world of middle school with our oldest son. As a 26-year resident of Huntington Beach, I believe this area is the best place to raise a family.

The Board continues to extend its vision for OVSD as a flagship school district in Orange County under the steady leadership of Superintendent Carol Hansen and Deputy Superintendent Michael Conroy. As your Board President, I will keep you informed about our school facility needs as I work to address these and other important topics for our families.

Before moving to California in 1981 I had the pleasure of growing up in Rochester Hills, Michigan. In 1997 I earned my multiple-subject credential, and in 2005 I received my master's degree in School Administration from Alliant University.

I moved to Huntington Beach 28 years ago with my husband Greg. We have three children: Garrett, Tanner, and McKenna, as well as a menagerie of pets. Our oldest son, Garrett recently married, and he and his wife are expecting our first granddaughter in October! My husband and I have been married for 32 years, and we love to travel, ride bikes, play golf, and bowl. During my 19-year tenure with the Ocean View School District I have enjoyed serving in many different capacities that include: classroom teacher for multiple grade levels, Title 1 teacher, summer school principal at multiple sites, and as the principal of College View where I have served for the past five years. Prior to my arrival at College View I was the principal at Hope View Elementary School for four years. Brett Hardy

I am very excited to be returning for my second year as the principal at Golden View. The Golden View staff and I would like to welcome all new and returning students and families to the 2016-2017 school year. We have been working hard to get ready for yet another wonderful school year and we are very excited to see all your smiling faces. Last year, we focused on implementing technology throughout the curriculum, as well as the 4 C's of the Common Core: communication, collaboration, critical thinking, and creativity. On a daily basis, students were able to practice these skills on our new Chromebook carts or in our traditional computer labs. Students created and collaborated on Google presentations and documents with their classmates and teachers, learned how to code, and much more.

This year, we will be building on the foundation that was developed by expanding and asking our students to do more than they ever have. How about creating a website, embedding video presentations, and collaborating with students in other schools in real time? We invite families and community members on campus to be part of the process and see the many great things the Golden View Kids will be doing in the 2016-2017 school year

Prior to coming to OVSD, I worked in the Huntington Beach City School District as a teacher and administrator at Dwyer Middle School and Huntington Seacliff Elementary School. I earned my B.A. from UC Santa Barbara and Masters from CSU Long Beach. Before I began my teaching career I was fortunate enough to spend two years playing professional baseball in the Arizona Diamondbacks system. When I am away from school, I enjoy spending time with my wife and two children who will be starting 8th and 6th grade this fall.

On behalf of the entire staff, I would like to welcome you to Harbour View Elementary, a California Distinguished School. I believe that we are all partners at Harbour View and share a common goal: To provide a safe, happy and successful learning experience for each of our students. With this in mind, as we help our students prepare for the upcoming school year, we will all need to be very thoughtful about how best to assure that it is, indeed, a safe, happy and successful experience for them. Please know that this is your school, and we welcome your involvement. Families are their child's first and most important teachers, and we need your cooperation and involvement to provide your student with the best education possible.

While serving as Harbour View's principal for the past ten years, I have had many District leadership opportunities including serving on the CCSS Implementation Committee. I have provided mentoring to countless student teachers, teachers, and fellow administrators. As a student myself, I attended CSULB and earned a bachelor's degree in Liberal Studies. I later earned a master's degree in Education from the United States International University at Irvine.

The Harbour View community is composed of enthusiastic students, helpful parent volunteers and top-notch professional educators who work hard each and every day to provide your child with a challenging and rigorous curriculum. I truly look forward to another exciting and productive school year...our children deserve nothing less!

I believe that our students must be adequately prepared to meet the opportunities and demands of the 21st century workforce. It allows children to explore various channels of learning. The new STEAM-focused program at Lake View is designed to do just this, and I am excited to lead the way! In my free time, you will find me spending quality time with my family and friends. I have two sons, one and seven years old, whom I adore beyond words.

William Lynch
Principal

It is a pleasure to open the 2016-2017 school year! I am now entering my third year as the Principal of Marine View Middle School in the Ocean View School District. Prior to serving at Marine View, I was an assistant principal at Buena Park Junior High School in the Buena Park School District. I am originally from New England and I knew from a very early age that I was not well-suited for cold weather. Finally, I made it to California 15 years ago, working at first for a public relations-lobbying firm. It was during this time that I had brushes with education policymakers in Sacramento, and it changed my life forever.

There was an essential question that needed an answer: How do we, as a diverse society, prepare all students for a successful future? At this point, I began my chosen profession in education. In the subsequent years, I had the pleasure of sharing my continued love of government and American History at both the high school and middle school levels, before moving my career in the direction of school administration.

I received my bachelor's degree in Political Science from the University of Arizona, and my master's degree in Secondary Education from California State University at Long Beach. When I am not at Marine View, I enjoy spending time with my wife and our two small children, ages six and eight.

This school year is going to be one of the best yet, and I look forward to welcoming all of you!

I look forward to kicking off another great school year! While serving as Principal of Mesa View for the last two years, I can say with confidence that Mesa View is an incredible place for our middle school-aged students to grow, learn and experience life. We are great because of the hardworking, dedicated staff that puts the needs of students first. I absolutely love how the Mesa View teachers and support staff are truly committed to creating an amazing middle school experience. Through a strong partnership with our PTSO and our community, Mesa View has developed a strong and positive school climate and culture. I'll shout from the mountain tops, "Mesa View Middle School has great teachers, parents, and most important, STUDENTS!"

Before joining the Mesa View team, I was the Assistant Principal of Spring View Middle School and had taught at Dwyer Middle School in the Huntington Beach City School District. Graduating from Concordia College in Moorhead, Minnesota, with a degree in education, I then continued with my studies to obtain a master's degree in School Administration from Concordia University in Irvine. Through and through, I am local to the area, proudly born and raised in Fountain Valley.

Outside of Mesa View, I have a supportive wife and a three-year-old son. I am passionate about Angels baseball and have served as a lifeguard for the city of Newport Beach since 1995.

Principal

Welcome to the 2016-17 School Year!

As the principal Sun View Elementary School, it is with great pleasure that I welcome all students and families to our school! I am so fortunate to work with such a wonderful staff, group of students and school community. Having worked in the Ocean View School District for the last nine years, I have gained invaluable experience in helping to create a successful, nurturing and safe school environment, and my expectation is that we will do so again this year.

The staff and I plan to continue on the path of educational excellence and we are committed to providing all Sun View students with the academic and pro-social behaviors that will be the foundation of their present and future success.

To give you a little background on me—I received my Bachelor of Science, Business Marketing, from California State University at Long Beach, along with a Liberal Studies Certificate and Teaching Credential. I earned my Master of Science in Education Administration from Pepperdine University.

“Your work is going to fill a large part of your life, and the only way to be truly satisfied is to do what you believe is great work. And the only way to do great work is to love what you do.” Thank you, Steve Jobs. This is a quote that strongly resonates with me. Having been in education for over 20 years, I am incredibly fortunate to still love what I do.

When I am not at work, I enjoy spending time with my wonderful family. I am married to my high school sweetheart, Craig, and we have two beautiful daughters, Sarah and Lauren, and two cats. I also love to run, go to the beach, spend time with friends, and be spoiled by my husband’s fabulous cooking!

Scott Mooney
Principal

I am excited to begin my second year as the Principal of Vista View Middle School. I am proud to lead a school where all adults are focused on doing what is best for students. Recently, Vista was recognized by the Educational Results Partnership (ERP) and the Campaign for Business and Education Excellence (CBEE) as an "Honor Roll Star School." This award recognizes our consistently high levels of student academic achievement, improvement in achievement levels over time, and a reduction in achievement gaps among student populations. We will continue our collective work to improve and expand the learning experience for all students. An additional area of focus for Vista View this year will be increasing parent and community engagement in the education process.

I received my undergraduate degree at Stevens Institute of Technology in Hoboken, New Jersey, where I majored in mechanical engineering and was captain of the volleyball team. Upon graduation, I decided to change my career path to make a difference in the lives of students. I was a high school science teacher and volleyball coach for 10 years, primarily at San Marino High School. I spent the 2007–2008 school year teaching English at Quy Nhon University in Vietnam. Susan Broderson

Principal

It's time for another great year to kick off and the staff at Westmont is ready! Everyone has been working hard to get classrooms ready for all of our new and returning scholars. Our custodians and maintenance department have been cleaning and sprucing up the buildings and grounds to welcome our Westmont students and families. We are especially excited this year to add new programs and incentives for our students. We will continue to focus on providing the best 21st century education to each and every child.

While integrating learning in Science, Technology, Engineering, Arts, and Math, we will also offer enrichment programs in the arts. New to Westmont this year will be the integration of the "Meet the Masters" art program into the core curriculum. "Meet the Masters" is a volunteer-led art history and appreciation program intended to acquaint children with the arts world. In addition, we will continue to offer "Disney Musicals in Schools," with a new high energy Disney production. Stay tuned to hear about this year's selection, which will be announced in September!

Personally, I am very grateful to be leading the Westmont staff for a third year. I have been in education for the past fifteen years, the past four as an administrator. I earned my bachelor's degree at California State University at Long Beach and a master's degree in Social Work at the University of Southern California. After being a social worker for many years, I switched careers and dedicated myself to education. My passion is working with children to assist them in reaching their full potential and in becoming productive, well-rounded community members. I am honored to work at Westmont with such a committed staff, which works tirelessly to meet the needs of all students. Working together with our parenting partners, we will make the 2016-2017 year a huge success!

INTERIM SUPERINTENDENT

Dr. Alan Rasmussen

After a 40-year career in K-12 education, it is my honor and pleasure to serve the Board of Trustees, students, staff, and community of the Huntington Beach Union High School District (HBUHSD) as Interim Superintendent. I am proud to be a Huntington Beach resident, and even more proud to now lead a district that works so diligently to educate, prepare, and inspire its students to change the world.

Prior to my retirement in 2011, I served as Superintendent for neighboring Ocean View School District, as well as Hermosa Beach City School District and Merced City School District. In addition to my 13 years of superintendent experience, I also held the positions of assistant superintendent, elementary and middle school principal, and classroom teacher in various school districts.

As a result of my years of experience, I recognize the importance of an esteemed, well-rounded leader at the forefront of a district. With the start of the new school year, the Board of Trustees will seek just that – an esteemed, well-rounded leader to become the district’s new superintendent.

As a crucial part of the superintendent hiring process, we sought essential input from employees, parents, students, and members of the community to help identify the most important skills and attributes when considering superintendent candidates throughout the month of August. In order to do so, we collected anonymous surveys to determine personal characteristics, professional characteristics, and education/experience attributes to be considered when selecting superintendent candidates. After an overwhelming amount of support, over 800 survey responses were collected, creating an invaluable packet of feedback to be considered through our process.

With our employees, parents, students, and members of the community by our side, I am confident our search for the next HBUHSD Superintendent will turn out triumphant, with a leader eager to continue empowering minds and building futures through innovative learning.

Dr. Duane Dishno
President

I am a retired educator and administrator who has lived in this community and been a resident of the Huntington Beach Union High School District (HBUHSD) for more than 40 years, during which time I served as Superintendent of elementary, unified, and high school districts.

I began my career as a classroom teacher, reading specialist, and learning analyst in the Westminster School District (WSD), then became a school Principal for the Huntington Beach City School District (HBCSD), where I also served as Director of Special Education and Special Services, and as Assistant Superintendent of Educational Services. In 1984, I assumed my first Superintendent position in Los Angeles County where I remained for ten years, returning to Huntington Beach in 1990 to serve as Superintendent of the HBCSD until my retirement in 2001.

Following retirement, I served for ten years as a Benefits Counselor with the California State Teachers Retirement System helping educators to plan wisely for their retirement years. I also served as an Interim Superintendent for HBCSD in 2004, and for HBUHSD in 2011.

In May of 2012, I was appointed to the Governing Board of the HBUHSD. I was elected to the position the following November, and re-elected in 2014.

Over the years, I have represented the communities in which I lived and worked in many ways, including serving on the Huntington Beach Centennial Celebration Committee, Huntington Beach Anti-Crime Coalition, Mayor’s Task Force on Children’s Needs, President of the American Heart Association Huntington-Valley Division, Pier Plaza Grand Opening Committee, Huntington Beach Chamber of Commerce Legislation Committee, President of the Association for Retarded Citizens, HBCSD Independent Citizens Oversight Committee, Vice-President of Promoting Resources in Drug Education Foundation, President of the Huntington Beach Education Foundation, West Sub-Region Committee on Gangs, United Way Schools Division, Historical Society, and Coordinating Council.

I served as State Membership Chair of the Association of California School Administrators, Chair of the Orange County Superintendents, Chair of the ACSA Region 17 Professional Standards Committee and Members Services Committee, and Chair of the East San Gabriel Valley Superintendents Association,

I grew up in the Pacific Northwest and came to California following graduation from college. I earned a Master’s Degree at California State University, Long Beach, and received my Doctoral Degree from the University of La Verne. I am married with two children and grandfather to four. Our children attended local schools and my wife taught for more than 30 years in the Westminster School District. She now supervises student teachers in a variety of elementary school districts for California State University, Long Beach.

I am a proud member of this community and I take great pride in my work as an elected Trustee for the people of Fountain Valley, Huntington Beach, and Westminster.

Faces. When I think about my career working with at-risk youth, and the Valley Vista High School academic community I am privileged to lead, I think of faces. I can recall the face of every teacher and administrator I have worked with in my many years in the Huntington Beach Union High School District. I can recall the face of every classified and professional support staff person I have worked with as an administrator. These faces are smiling because they found immense satisfaction in the personal challenge and close interaction of helping these special students achieve their potential. As do I.

By far the most important element of our success at VvHS is the quality and commitment of our instructional and support staff. Our teachers are expert in their subject area, and collaborative, and sincerely interested in our unique student population. The guidance staff sensitively supports the teachers, students, and parents. Our classified staff provides prompt, responsive, friendly service. Our teachers embrace educational technology, utilize social media, encourage creativity, and develop global citizens. Our students respond very well to innovative, integrated curriculum that promotes 21st century skills.

At this time of year, it's the faces of students that come to me most strongly. Some students arrived with carefully controlled blank faces. Their parents' faces often try to hide fear or dread. These are very real, understandable emotions in the situation. I knew that VvHS would welcome and embrace these students and their families. These students' faces changed first to shy, happy acceptance, and then full smiles on graduation day.

I am fortunate to be part of a truly supportive community of colleagues who share a strong commitment to our students' success. I'm also blessed with the love and support of a wonderful husband and incredible daughter, good friends, and three very special cats, and the memories of faces that I cherish.

Recently the Fountain Valley Fire and Police Departments have responded to two non-breathing victims. On June 20, Fire and Police responded to an emergency 911 call, with lights/ sirens. Once on scene, they discovered a 15-month-old victim had fallen into a backyard swimming pool and was unresponsive. The decision was made to immediately transport the infant, along with paramedic personnel, in the back of a police unit to the Fountain Valley Regional Hospital. Once at the hospital, medical personnel were able to revive the infant. The infant has made a full recovery. Hospital personnel said the quick actions by emergency responders saved precious seconds and most likely saved the infant’s life.

On Saturday, August 6, Fountain Valley Police Officers responded to a 911 call regarding a baby not breathing. The first Police Officer arrived on scene within one minute of the call for service. Upon entering the residence, the Officer was confronted with an unresponsive four-month-old baby being held by the parents. The Officer immediately began CPR on the infant and made an instantaneous decision to use the second arriving Police Officer to transport to a nearby hospital emergency room. While continuing CPR in the back of the police vehicle, the Officers made an emergency response to the hospital. After arriving at the hospital, medical personnel were able to revive the infant.

When responding to emergency situations, every second counts! The more quickly CPR is started, the better chance that a victim will have a reduced injury and a better outcome. Everyone should know CPR, it could save a life. As Mayor and as a resident of this wonderful community, I’d like to send a “Kudos” for the quick response by our public safety personnel!

Ready for a New School Year

Jim Katapodis
Mayor

Welcome back to school! I hope you all had an amazing summer and ready for another great year of learning experience.

I'm sure you'll agree with me when I say this has been an outstanding summer for Huntington Beach. Our city was well-represented in the Rio Olympics! We have at least six athletes from Huntington Beach compete, and that in itself is incredible! We had another successful Vans US Open of Surfing where skateboarders and BMX riders showed off their expertise and talents. Thousands came to witness these world-class surfers and bikers, and enjoyed our restaurants, shops and hotels in the process.

Well, the new Senior Center in Central Park finally had its Grand Opening in July. It's a beautiful facility worthy of serving such a great community as ours, and I encourage you to check it out. They have a lot of volunteer opportunities for young adults, so if you need those volunteer hours or you want to beef up your resume, check them out.

For the aviation enthusiasts, come October 21 – 23, the City will be hosting the Breitling Huntington Beach Airshow. The aerobatic maneuvers of the Thunderbirds will be showcased, with the beach and Pacific Ocean serving as its natural amphitheater. And the best part is it's FREE. Another opportunity for those who love to volunteer -- is being a 'Breitling wingman.' Visit www.hbairshow.com to sign up for this once in a lifetime experience or for more details.

Attending promotional ceremonies and high school graduations last year have been one of the highlights of my year as Mayor and, needless to say, your family and I look forward to seeing you get promoted or graduate this year. I wish you success in all your undertakings, but most of all, have fun while doing so.

THIS YEAR,
